Pope Francis' thoughts...

Authentic human development has a moral character. It presumes full respect for the human person, but it must also be concerned for the world around us and take into account the nature of each being and of its mutual connection in an ordered system. The book of nature is one and indivisible, and includes the environment, life, sexuality, the family, social relations, and so forth. "The misuse of creation begins when we no longer recognize any higher instance than ourselves, when we see nothing else but ourselves.

Thanks to all for the Centennial Celebration!

On Saturday, June 3, over 220 Nativity parishioners, school parents, alumni and friends gathered for the evening to celebrate 100 years of Nativity! Many thanks to the Centennial Celebration Committee members Doug & Patti Newberry (co-chairpeople); John and Robyn Van Rens (co-chairpeople); Russ and Angela Conrad; and Bob and Lisa Jennings for all their hard work in planning and implementing this event. We are grateful to the many volunteers and Nativity staff members who helped with all the many details in making the event successful! We thank Julie Klug for providing the music at dinner and The Refranes for music in the courtyard. We thank Brian Wendel and Dave Peter for hanging the lights above the courtyard. We appreciate all the Home Brewers who contributed their brews, Thane Lorbach for creating the awards, and Cavalier Distributing for sponsoring the event. Finally, we thank the people of Nativity for always providing a welcoming sense of community that makes Nativity "a great place to be." "May our second century, like the first, be a period of faithful living, building on the foundation that has been laid by our ancestors and sharing the gift of faith with each other and those who follow us." Fr. Paul DeLuca
