Next Sunday's Outreach Collection will be going to St. Francis – St. Joseph Catholic Worker House. A safe and dignified environment where homeless men can work on securing immediate needs of housing, employment, drug/alcohol rehabilitation and case management. Their existence is totally dependent on private donations; they receive no government funding. Please consider giving a tax-deductible gift to support the good work at the worker house.

Eucharistic Holy Hour: The Holy Hour will begin with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, accompanied by brief prayer, reading, meditation, contemplation and adoration. At the end of the hour, there will again be brief prayer, with scripture and song, concluding with Benediction with Blessed Sacrament. The Holy Hour will be held on Wednesday, September 9th starting at 7:00 pm in church.

Nativity Alumni Invited to Attend Annual Mass and Breakfast on September 16th! On Wednesday, September 16, Nativity Alumni and their guests are invited to attend the Annual Mass and Breakfast at 9:00 am with Mass followed by a complimentary continental breakfast in the cafeteria. This year's speakers include Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Jim Rigg, who will briefly address the state of Catholic education in the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. New Nativity Principal Chris Shisler will briefly speak about why he has chosen to be an administrator in a Catholic school and his vision for the future of Nativity School. RSVP to Julie Abraham by September 9 by completing the insert in today's bulletin or e-mail her at julie.abraham@nativity-cincinnati.org with your Name, Year of Graduation, E-Mail address and Number attending.

The Cathedral of Saint Peter in Chains extends an open invitation to all Greater Cincinnati Police, Fire, and Public Safety Personnel, Families, Friends & Community to the 11th Annual Blue Mass Celebration, on Sunday, September 27th. Blessing & Procession begin at 10:45 am with Mass at 11:00 am. Refreshments and fellowship after the services. People of all faiths are invited to pray with us for the men and women whose dedicated service assists us in making our communities safe and for those who have given the ultimate sacrifice to save others.

Discover the Magic of Music Together: Music Together is a fun-filled music and movement program for infants, toddlers, and preschoolers...and the adults who love them. The informal setting of singing and dancing, and instrument playing provides a solid foundation for a lifetime of musical enjoyment. Classes are held in the Parish Office building. They begin Wednesday, September 16th at 9:30 & 10:30 am and Thursday, September 17th, at 9:30 & 10:30 am. Try a FREE class on September 9th and 10th at 9:30 & 10:30 am. Contact Eliana Corredor at 652-6267 or by e-mail at studiomusictime@gmail.com.

With the Pope's visit to the United States only a few weeks away, excitement is mounting...what will he say to Congress and the United Nations? Get a preview of the Pope's message by joining Xavier University's Institute for Spirituality and Social Justice as we explore his recent encyclical, Laudato Si': On Care for our Common Home through engagement with the Pope's own words, discussion of what it means for us as Catholics, and resources for further study. Registration is now open for both our workshops...choose either Saturday, September 12th, from 9:00am until 3:00 pm ($25 including lunch) or Saturday, September 19th, 1:00-5:00 pm ($10.) To register and for more information, visit us online at www/Xavier.edu/issj and click on the tree.

Notre Dame Psychology Professor to Address "The Perils and Promise of Adolescence" at Moeller High School on Monday, October 5th: You are invited to a free lecture exploring the sources of risk and resilience for teens and their parents as they navigate their second decade of life. Professor Daniel Lapsley, Chair of the Psychology Department at the University of Notre Dame, will speak at Moeller High School on Monday, October 5th. The event begins with an optional reception with light refreshments at 6:30 pm, followed by the lecture at 7:00 pm. It is open to the public, free of charge, and no RSVP is needed. Professor Lapsley is a specialist in adolescent development, moral psychology, and moral education. His research focuses on personality development during adolescence and young adulthood, including decision-making and identity development. He is the author or editor of seven books and over 100 articles and chapters on adolescent and educational psychology. For more information, call 513-703-5107 or email ndcincy@gmail.com.

FYI: The Parish Office will be closed Monday, September 7th in observance of the Labor Day holiday.
